

Pennsylvania Positive Behavior Support Network Implementers' Forum Going to Scale: 3 -Tiered Logic

May 23 & 24, 2012 – Hershey Lodge and Convention Center, Hershey, PA

The Pennsylvania Positive Behavior Support (PAPBS) Network Implementers' Forum "Going to Scale: 3-Tiered Logic" is sponsored by the Bureau of Special Education, Pennsylvania Department of Education, with support from the member agencies of Pennsylvania's State Leadership Team (SLT) for School Based Behavioral Health (SBBH). The forum is designed as a venue for stakeholders who are interested in advancing supports for all students, including students with disabilities, in the implementation of school or program-wide Positive Behavioral Interventions and Supports (PBIS). The forum serves as a means to provide participants with information about establishing, maintaining and expanding PBIS through a three-tiered decision making framework that guides the selection, integration and implementation of evidence-based practices for improving behavior outcomes for learners.

The Implementers' Forum addresses five specialized program strands at the early childhood, elementary, middle and high school levels:

- Universal Supports for Students (Tier 1)
- Secondary Supports and Interventions (Tier 2)
- Tertiary Supports and Interventions (Tier 3)
- Community and Family Partnerships
- Coaching

The Implementers' Forum features:

- Strategies for scaling-up school and program-wide PBIS
- National presentations by Dr. Lucille Eber, Dr. Scott Ross, Dr. Laura Riffel, Dr. George Sugai, and Dr. Mary Louise Hemmeter
- Twenty five (25) breakout sessions, differentiated to support the needs of both novice and experienced implementers

Target Audience:
